

You're invited to Holbrook Landcare's third Adaptive Farming Systems webinar

An interview with the Hassall's "Jergyle" Holbrook Thursday 15th October 7.30pm via Zoom

Our next Adaptive Farming Systems webinar features the Hassall family of "Jergyle" Holbrook who provide another excellent example of how a family business is adapting their farm to manage seasonal variation and production outcomes while considering risk and the environment. Join us for an interactive discussion with Jono and Fergus Hassall on the projected outlook for the family business.
